

SCHOLARSHIP LIST Updated 3/2/10

Scholarships included in this listing are the ones that have been turned into the counseling office. There are many more scholarships that are not listed. The key to scholarships is finding the ones that you can apply for. There are many sources of scholarships. Most national and state scholarships come out in the fall.

Organizations, such as Elks or VFW have scholarships throughout the year. If you are entering a specific field of study like Accounting, Nursing, Engineering, or Agriculture, or any other field, you can apply for scholarships that are specific for these careers. Many times parent's place of employment offer scholarships, like Felker Brothers or Marathon Cheese. The local scholarships usually come in during the spring. Scholarship committees are looking for high academic performance, extra-curricular activities, leadership, community service, and future plans. If you would like some help looking for, or filling out scholarships please see Mr. Kingston. The key to getting scholarships is applying for them!
